

Where Should I Go?

Contact Your Doctor First

We do encourage you to see your child's primary care physician whenever possible for the types of illnesses and injuries we treat in Urgent Care— that's why our Urgent Cares are open during evenings and weekends only.

	Urgent Care	Emergency
Allergies	●
Asthma Attack (Minor)	●
Asthma Attack (Severe)		●
Bleeding That Won't Stop		●
Broken Bone (Skin Intact)	●
Broken Bone (Bone Sticking Out of Skin)		●
Burn (Minor)	●
Burn (Severe)		●
Cast Problems (Wet or Soiled)		●
Colds	●
Cough	●
Cut (Minor)	●
Cut (Severe)		●
Dehydration	●
Diarrhea	●
Dizziness	●
Earache and Ear Infection	●
Fainting		●
Fever (child over 2 months old)	●
Fever (child under 2 months old)		●
Headache	●
Headache (Migraine)		●
Head Injury (Minor & Without Loss of Consciousness)	●
Head Injury (Severe)		●
Insect or Minor Dog Bite	●
Nausea	●
Pink Eye	●
Pneumonia		●
Poisoning		●
Rash	●
Seizure		●
Shock		●
Sore Throat	●
Sprain or Strain	●
Stitches	●
Stomach Pain (Mild)	●
Stomach Pain (Severe)		●
Swallowed Object		●
Trouble Breathing		●
Urinary Infection	●

These are general guidelines to help parents make healthcare decisions for their children. Please contact your primary care physician to receive personalized guidance for your current situation.

For wait times at all of our Urgent Care locations,
TEXT "ccurgent" to 437411.

