

JAPAN-US TRADE & BUSINESS IN THE TRUMP ERA:

Finding a New Way Forward

October 23, 2018 | 11:30 AM - 2:00 PM

EVENT OVERVIEW

A timely discussion focused on Japanese companies with U.S. operations in the global supply chain. Speakers will address critical issues including NAFTA's future, tariffs on steel/aluminum/other products, the impact on automotive parts makers and OEM's, the special case of China, and international trade compliance. We will review trade issues generally (manufacturing, agriculture, textiles, etc.), as well as the impact on logistics and trucking. You will receive practical advice on how to succeed amid disruption and challenges. Simultaneous translation (English to Japanese) will be provided throughout the event, sponsored by Frost Brown Todd.
